

Executive Order
64-366

THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE
WASHINGTON

16 January 1963

Dear John:

I concur in your dispatch of a special TDY augmentation to Saigon to assist in developing techniques to improve covert intelligence collection. I do not, however, believe that the team should have an inspectoral function for the overall reporting system.

I believe that we do require a fundamental review of the adequacy of the reporting system from which should flow recommendations for its improvement but it should be a joint program involving all of the affected members of the Country Team.

Sincerely,

BOB

Robert S. McNamara

Honorable John A. McCone
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D. C.
